

JOY IN SINGING

The Art Song Institute

2025 INTERNATIONAL ART SONG COMPETITION

(Please read all requirements before applying)

FIRST PRIZE:

$3,000 and a Debut Recital in Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall in New York City

FINALISTS:

$500

The competition will take place from July 2024 to November 2024, with the debut recital date projected to take place in either February or March 2025.

The online application will be active on Monday, July 8 at 12:00 pm (noon) EST.

GENERAL COMPETITION RULES:

- There is no age limit for this competition
- Applicants may not have made a debut recital in any major New York City venue
- Previous First Prize winners may not apply
- All songs must be sung from memory
- No arias (e.g., from opera/operetta/oratorio/cantata), musical theater or 'pop' songs
- Transpositions are permitted
- For Preliminary Auditioners advancing to the Semi-Final and/or Final Rounds, it is preferred that you provide your own accompanist at your own expense for each round (it does not need to be the same person for both rounds). Upon request, JIS can provide a list of pianists.
- Applicants agree to be bound by the competition rules
- Joy in Singing reserves full rights to any media recorded during the competition
- Transportation and housing are not included
- The competition jury decisions are final
- The competition jury may decide not to award any prize

APPLICATION DEADLINE AND FEES:

Applications will be accepted until Friday, August 30, 2024, via the online application portal. The application fee is $80, with a reduced fee of $70 for early applications received by Friday, August 16, with payment made via PayPal.

PRELIMINARY AUDITION RULES

Applications for the 2024-25 Joy In Singing Competition will open on Monday, July 8, 2024.

Competition applications are available via YAP Tracker.

Applicants are required to submit a recent video recording for the Preliminary Round that includes three contrasting songs from the art song repertoire, representing three different languages. Performances must be with live piano accompaniment only and should not be edited or enhanced in any way. Tracks with either orchestral or instrumental accompaniment will not be considered.

For tips on creating videos, Opera America has put together Remote Audition Guidelines to help you with the process:

<https://www.operaamerica.org/media/br5jsqfz/remoteauditionsoa.pdf>

To be eligible for the Competition, applicants must be available on the dates reserved — the Semi-Final Round on Thursday, October 24, and the Final Round on Thursday, November 14.

PRELIMINARY AUDITIONERS WILL BE NOTIFIED VIA EMAIL NO LATER THAN OCTOBER 1, 2024 IF THEY HAVE ADVANCED TO THE SEMI-FINAL ROUND

Those selected to advance to the semi-final round are encouraged to arrange and provide for their own accompanist. If selected for the finals round, it is recommended that the same pianist serve as your accompanist but it is not a requirement. Upon request, JIS can provide a list of pianists for the applicant to consider and contact.

SEMI-FINAL ROUND

The Semi-Final Round will take place in the Charles Mackay Studio at OPERA America's National Opera Center, 330 Seventh Avenue, 7th floor, on Thursday, October 24, 2024. The Semi-Final Round will be closed to the public.

- Semi-finalists will perform a 20-minute art song program of varying repertoire that includes at least three languages, which may include works from the preliminary auditions.
- A printable and editable electronic version of the program in performance order, along with a headshot and bio, must be received by JIS no later than Wednesday, October 9, 2024. Although translations are not required for this round, you may include them.
- The program will be performed without interruption with no additional requests from the judges.
- The Competition Jury will select no more than five finalists from the Semi-Final Round. All Semi-finalists will be notified of their status on Friday, October 25 by either email or phone call.

FINAL ROUND

The Final Round will take place in the Marc A. Scorca Hall at OPERA America's National Opera Center, 330 Seventh Avenue, 7th floor, on November 14, 2024. The Final Round will be open to the public. Ticketing information will be provided at a later date.

- Finalists will perform a 30 minute program of material, half of which includes songs not previously presented. Works must represent the art song repertoire with at least three different languages offered.
- A printable and downloadable version of the program in performance order, including texts and translations, along with a headshot and bio, must be received by JIS no later than Friday, November 1, 2024.
- Finalists may, at their option, intersperse their songs with up to 10 minutes of spoken passages about themselves, their song selections, the composers and poets, or any other topic that communicates their artistic intent. Please note that spoken interludes are not required, but JIS encourages contestants to reveal their artistic personalities through both spoken and sung words.
- The program will be performed without interruption with no additional requests from the judges.

PRIZES WILL BE AWARDED FOLLOWING THE FINALS ROUND
